There is farewell of thy old Neighbour if he had this kind Love to the How was for some time to night that Love to the Widow his wife she was formerly very loving & kind to me & my people here in town fully as much as I can report But now is she up things looked black upon the Dark professors here the sundry not shining upon these professors so if the world I think we glad to make peace in that of breaking of it which I shall favour of them the more done But now look to your fellows for the are like as the word in former times the put the blame one upon another I desire the to remember my Dear Love to James Harrison I am still for it if I never heard in any sort of ever had remembered his Love to me but I hope we shall soon yet But if too slightly it is not I Hannah Worthington Love is to you all I John Tysons also was and a good friend in this town except my man who is George Burthor son of Janbry meeting John Elston is not in this town is gone to find Noam ormskirk has did more hurt by a great Deal then good had was a loose Lad I got many Reports here I am afraid has wasted Deals of his stock John Tyson I think will do very well here I got many I is truly & deeply sorry to the last year for some heads when the friends of the can head to make of both givers that is to venture I can make any for of returns I shall be very free & willing to send the goods so I Love it to the & I desire to have from the when convenient opportunity shall present I that the do not miss from him for I never had any letters but 2 from the so having given the some small amounts But could tell the I great many of passengers if I were with the well I all my think I shall from him for the far you I gave But wh way I cannot tell However the will of the Lord be done I then all things I am fully satisfied will be well provided to gather for good the Lord establish his people & give them strong power & wisdom in Nations & Islands where ever the God ordered my earnest Desire is for them all so shall we remain in a full remembrance one of another & fresh in our hearts one should not outwardly but in inward sense which I am bound to say is the most & most fostering of all other forms the only one that leads & doth all Do I att this kind Love the content of things I bid the same & send well thy truly Dear Reg Longworth was with so from in hand & glad now have 2 or 3 of which I was glad is now the post in Ireland I am this year the successor to what the has been the over fear of poor value
